Dear Harold Weisberg:

Thanks so much for your kind and thoughtful letter of 27 August which we greatly appreciate receiving.

We are writing to Mrs Mary Ferrell about the CIA cable and hope that she comes up with something. In the meantime we shall also try to pin Michael Eddowes down again in the hope that we can get a little more from him.

As you know only too well yourself, every potential lead has to be checked out and followed through. One cannot ignore anything. You may well be right in dismissing the Mariella Tibben/Capes story, we have no way of knowing ourselves at the moment, but the story does seem very odd and we know that she and the film producer, Towers, were closely connected with Dr Stephen Ward. Perhaps they do more rightfully belong with Profumo rather than Kennedy.

We didn't raise the subject of Kennedy's affaires because of any salacious interest but merely because of the Judith Campbell Exner matter. The Sam Giancana connection has always struck us as having potential bearings on the assassination. Are we wrong?

We were interested in what you thought of the Tony Summers book. We were pretty critical of it ourselves for various reasons. It seemed to receive uniformly good reviews over here, but the thing is that no one over here was in any position to review it anyway, none of the scribblers had any understanding of the assassination. Did any good detailed critical reviews of it appear over there?

In regard to the Cambridge phone call we are investigating it now and anything that we come up with that we think might be of interest to you shall certainly be forwarded. And on the other matter too.

We were both very sorry to hear about your circulation problem, it must be tough to live with, and typing certainly sounds a great chore.

With best wishes

Tony Frewin
